rieslings of julian haart

“with julian haart's wines the beauty lies in filtering the comparatively warm site of piesporter goldtröpfchen, one of the great vineyards of the mosel known as such since roman times, into wines of extreme delicacy. push and pull, tension of restraint. they are mosel wines in their purest form, radiant and crackling, never broad nor ever an element of excess. in dry or off-dry form, the wines are masterful nuanced harmonies in nimble, wildly easily consumed form. evaporative.”

- collin wagner of vom boden, a haart lover - julian and nadine haart produce wines of finesse and elegance, always working towards perfecting the simplistic beauty of their wines.

we're so proud to showcase their labor of love here at noreetuh. prost!

rieslings of joh. jos. prüm

prüm estate began with sebastian alois prüm; his brother jodocus constructed iconic wehlener and zeltinger sundials. of his six sons, only mathias married. in 1911, the estate was split amongst mathias' four sons and three daughters, eldest son was johann josef. when joh. jos. fell ill, his son sebastian took over in 1920 and went to establish the world repute, which continues to this day.

after sebastian's death in 1969, his son manfred assumed responsibilities, and today with his oldest daughter katharina, perpetuate a style that has become a mosel archetype: wines of delicacy and restrained sweetness.

wines of keller

“if I had to choose one wine to show how great dry german riesling can be i would choose a keller riesling. those wines are the german Montrachets”

- jancis robinson -

often people ask me ‘what’s your favorite wine jin?’ and to that i casually say that ‘any good wine is my favorite.’ but when the sun, moon and the stars align, wines can hit you like a lightning...like love! these moments help me shape the way i view the wines. klaus peter’s wine hit me with a jolt of lightning few years back.
like the kellers themselves, these wines are pure and full of love.

wines of louis jadot

aim of louis jadot is to express the true nature of burgundy through its wines, a terroir that can be both proud of its past and optimistic about its future.

louis jadot wines offer one of the greatest range, from grand cru to regional level that truly speak of their places. these wines deliver tremendous value, and their ability to age is second to none. i have often found myself pleasantly surprised by the juice behind the iconic statue of bacchus. i hope you find the same today!

reds of germany

when you consider germany, you can't help but think that it is a land of riesling, and rightfully so! rieslings here are so airy, versatile, zippy and complete.....but on the flipside of the german coin rests everything else! from a classic spätburgunder to lemberger & trollinger nearby the black forest, to a mosel cabernet sauvignon! germany has it all. i hope you discover a wonderful german red today!

reds of germany - mosel pinot noirs

“spätburgunder has a long tradition on the mosel, or, perhaps more accurately: it had one...production of red varieties was outright banned in 1934. yet earlier, in the 19th century spätburgunder had been important enough in the mosel to receive its own version of the famous prussian site map classifying riesling sites...the steps that led to the repeal of the ban in 1986 are much clearer. a growing number of winegrowers, led by ulli stein from bullay, had pushed authorities for the right to restore pinot noir to their vineyards, arguing that it was standard practice in other german winegrowing regions...” - christopher raffelt writing for trink magazine
